CHOSEN FOR PRESIDENT.

Rev. O. P. Bestor of Evansville, Conn., as Recording Secretary—Union of Christian Bodies For the Suppression of the Liquor Traffic Favored.

Racine, Oct. 9.—The Baptists of the state, in session here today, elected these officers:

President—E. J. Lindsay Milwaukee.

First Vice President—W. A. Barber, Warren.

Second Vice President—P. S. Webb, Oshkosh.

Corresponding Secretary—D. E. Haltemann, Delavan.

Recording Secretary—O. P. Bestor, Evansville.

The state fair officials were condemned for allowing beer on the grounds, and it was resolved to work for the union of all christian organizations in the state in opposition to the liquor traffic and social evils.

The project of affiliating Bayer Dam Seminary with the Chicago University, may be carried.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 9.—The reluctance of the house of deputies of the Episcopal convention to alter the report of the constitutional revision commission appeared again yesterday, when two committees reported against the proposed amendments. One advised against pluralizing the word constitution all through the document, and the other disapproved of the proposal to give dioceses under certain conditions the right to cede parts of their territory and erect therein missionary jurisdictions. The latter proposition, introduced by Judge Fairbanks, of Florida, will be pushed, nevertheless.

Rev. Samuel Hart, custodian of the prayer book, presented a long report on the printing of the new edition from the standard recently approved.

Two messages came from the house of bishops. The first recommended the use of the word constitutions in the plural in the title of the revised documents. This was concurred in, 83 to 13. The second message took up subsequent sections. The recommendation that the word convention be retained instead of the proposed synod was negated by the deputies.

The joint committee of five bishops and five presbyters, appointed at the last convention, to report upon such changes in the revised version of the Bible as might be recommended for adoption, reported that the convention labored under a misapprehension as to similar work having been undertaken in England, and was discharged at its own request. It was decided, however, with the concurrence of the deputies, to name another commission to undertake the work independently of the Church of England. Constitutional revision was then taken up.

The house decided by 55 to 37 in favor of the term "bishop coadjutors" instead of "assistant bishops."

The house of deputies had a warm debate over the question of adopting the term primate as the title of the senior member of the house of bishops. A message had been received from the house of bishops announcing that it had adopted section 2 of article 1, of the revised constitution, with the word "primate" in, and the question being on the matter of concurring with the house of bishops. George C. Thomas, of Philadelphia, offered an amendment, changing the word primate to presiding bishop. This was what started the debate, and before it was over, most of the leaders had participated in it with all the earnestness and eloquence for which they are famous. It was the most interesting meeting the deputies had had, and the interest in the final vote was intense. The Thomas amendment was lost, receiving 152 votes, while the opposition mustered 162 votes. The word "primate" may be the object of another attack, but it looks as if it would finally be adapted.

The deputies conferred with the house of bishops relative to the rights in the convention of resigned bishops. The house of bishops gave them the right to vote, and although some of the deputies were in favor of taking away the privilege the action of the bishops was finally concurred in. The committee on location of the next convention reported in favor of Boston, Mass.

Henry L. Duhring, secretary and treasurer of the body, quoted the following statistics: Sunday schools of the church in the United States, 5,900; officers and teachers, 47,000; scholars, 500,000; Sunday schools of all denominations in the United States and the Canadas, 113,000; officers and teachers, 1,300,000; scholars, 11,300,000; total in Sunday schools, 12,600,000; Sunday schools of the world, teachers, 2,500,000; scholars, 25,000,000.

It was decided to appoint a committee of three, with Dr. Stone, of Chicago, as chairman, to bring the matters of the institute's work before the general convention. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Bishop Gilbert, Minneapolis.

Executive board—George C. Thomas, chairman; Rev. O. Whittaker, of Pennsylvania; Right Rev. George Worthington, of Nebraska; Rev. Reese V. Alston, D. D., Long Island; Rev. J. Graham, Rev. W. H. Graff, Central Pennsylvania; Rev. J. O. Edwards, of

Southern Virginia; Rev. George D. Shinn, D. D., Massachusetts; Rev. J. S. Stone, D. D., Chicago; Rev. R. R. Swope, D. D., West Virginia; Rev. K. J. Hammond, Delaware; P. H. Litchfield, Minneapolis; E. Higgins, Baltimore, Md.; G. W. Menaffy, Marietta, Pa.; W. H. Roddis, Philadelphia, Pa.; S. D. C. Van Bokkelen, Brooklyn, N. Y.; George E. Wetmore, New York City; Thomas Potts, Richmond, Va.; William R. Burtler, Mauch Chunk, Pa.

Secretaries—Rev. H. L. Duhring, of Philadelphia, secretary and treasurer; Rev. F. J. C. Moran, Maryland; Rev. R. N. Thomas, Pennsylvania; Rev. C. E. Haupt, St. Paul.

MR. WEST DENOUNCES MR. BAYARD

Stinging Words Written About the United States Ambassador to England.

New York, Oct. 9.—A special cablegram to the World from London says: An extraordinary and in many respects unprecedented publication by a British diplomat has been discussed during the last few days. It is a handsome printed pamphlet, marked "For private circulation only," and entitled "My Mission to the United States, 181-89," and has just been issued by Lord Sackville, who, as Sir Lionel Sackville-West, K. C. M. G., was the English minister to Washington for the period named. It will be remembered that President Cleveland almost on the eve of election of 1888 sent Sir Lionel his passports because of a letter written by him to an alleged Englishman in California commenting upon the approaching election.

But the unprecedented part of it, and the part which has aroused very excited comment is, first, the freedom of his strictures upon the American people and American public men; and, second, his own expressed indignation that the British ministry should have accepted Mr. Bayard as ambassador to this country, while as secretary of state of the United States Mr. Bayard had wantonly insulted in person its accredited representative.

Lord Sackville says he entered upon his duties with great solicitude. He says: "I was well aware of the difficulties I should have to contend with in combating the influence of the Fenian organization exercised over the government, and which was so powerful in both houses of the legislature." He declares his life was in constant danger from Fenians during his stay in Washington.

Lord Sackville then reviews at length the negotiations over the Bering Sea question and asserts that neither England nor the Dominion could get justice because the "government dared not interfere with the Alaska Fur company, which corporation was rich and influential in both Houses of Congress."

Referring to his famous Murchison letter, he says he was furnished with a copy of the following telegram received by a member of the cabinet from the National committee in New York: "Does the president know that the Irish vote is slipping out of our hands because of diplomatic shilly-shallying? See Lamont (the president's secretary and chief wire-puller) at once. Something ought to be done today." Accordingly he received his passports that afternoon.

Lord Sackville quotes a statement he made to Lord Salisbury, accusing Secretary Bayard of flagrant misstatement of facts and of duplicity. He refers to President Cleveland in bitter terms, and adds: "There is no base action which an American politician will not resort to in order to gain an election."

Lord Sackville says that two justices of the Supreme court, since dead, spoke in terms of the strongest condemnation of President Cleveland's action toward him. He quotes a letter in full from a manager of a dime museum in New York offering him $2,000 per week and expenses for himself and suite if he would hold two levees of two hours daily in "my palatial museum."

Fires on a British Steamer.

Havana, Oct. 9.—Dispatches from Santiago says that the government cruiser Alceda stopped a steamer believed to be the Alene, which left New York on Sept. 21 for Kingston, Savanilla and Carthagena. The Alene promptly hoisted her colors and put about. The cruiser, according to the captain of the Alene, approached to within a mile of her and then turned around and steamed away.

Fusion Ticket Ratified.

New York, Oct. 9.—The fusion ticket nominated at the republican and state democratic county convention Monday night was yesterday ratified by the committee of fifty of the chamber of commerce. Business men among both republicans and state democrats said that it was a strong ticket and would be elected. Dr. Parkhurst condemns the action.

Seeks Help from England.

London, Oct. 9.—It is reported that the visit of Princess Kaiulani to England has some political meaning and that renewed efforts are being made to secure the interest of Great Britain in her cause. The Hawaiian princess is treated with the same formality as a reigning princess would be treated.

More Soldiers for Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 9.—The steamer Maria Christina has arrived here, having on board fifty Spanish officers and 1,000 soldiers.

Prince Bismarck Ill.

Friedrichsruhe, Oct. 9.—Owing to sudden cold Prince Bismarck is slightly indisposed.

KANSAS CITY FIRE
COSTS A MAN'S LIFE

THEATRE COMIQUE WAS DESTROYED THIS MORNING.

Allan Kennedy Went Down With the Ruins and Was Rescued Only To Die Soon Afterward—Four People Roasted at Cincinnati—List of Wilksbarre's Dead.

Kansas City, Oct. 9.—The Theatre Comique was burned this morning. One man named Allan Kennedy, was buried in the ruins and later rescued, but his injuries were such that he died soon afterward.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 9.—About midnight flames broke from the crowded tenement on the corner of Sixth and Smith streets. It was a shell and burned with such rapidity that the inmates had little chance to escape. The dead removed from the building are:

MRS. MARY HOLMES, aged 60.

MRS. DAVIS.

RACHEL DAVIS.

THERESA LANG.

The badly injured who were taken to the hospital, are:

Jane Young, a daughter of Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Ponso and two children.

May Edwards, a New York actress and sister of Mrs. Ponso.

Thomas O'Flaherty.

There are others injured, but the names could not be learned.

Wilksbarre, Pa., Oct. 9.—The bodies of the three engineers and the fire boss who were killed in the explosion in the Dorrance mine Monday night were recovered early yesterday. It is now believed the list of dead will be confined to the following:

WILLIAM JONES, mining engineer, aged 32 years.

WILLIAM CAHILL, mining engineer, 21 years old, single.

LLEWELLYN OWENS, mining engineer, 21 years old; son of Division Superintendent Owens of West Pittston.

DAVID J. DAVIS, fire boss, leaves a wife and two children.

MICHAEL MORRIS, 40 years, Poland, single.

Guests Escape in Their Night Clothes.

Lorain, Ohio, Oct. 9.—The Hotel Darling burned at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning, the fire originating in the kitchen, where it was discovered by a domestic. In a few minutes the whole structure was enveloped and escape seemed impossible for the forty guests in the main building, but through the forethought of the domestic, who went from room to room awakening the sleepers, all finally escaped, most of them in their night clothes. The loss is estimated at $15,000.

EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE.

Old Folks' Home to Be Established at Flat Rock, Ohio.

Elgin, Ill., Oct. 9.—A good deal of important business was transacted at the morning session of the Evangelical general conference yesterday. A report on the work and condition of the Orphan Home at Flat Rock, Ohio, showed the institution to be prosperous. A new constitution for the home was adopted. The conference decided to establish an Old Folks' Home on the ample grounds of the orphanage. It was resolved to issue semi-monthly periodicals in both English and German in the interest of the Young People's Alliance (an institution corresponding to the Christian Endeavor society) as soon as 5,000 subscribers have been secured. By a subsequent motion it was decided to commence the publication in either English or German as soon as 2,500 subscribers are obtained for the paper in either language. The English edition will be called the Evangelical Alliance Messenger, and the German Der Evangelische Bundesbote. A material reduction in the prices of the regular Sunday-school publications was agreed upon, after considerable discussion.

DEFEAT FOR BALTIMORE.

Cleveland Wins the Deciding Game of the Temple Cup Series.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 9.—The baseball season came to a close yesterday when the Cleveland won their fourth and deciding game in the Temple cup series. It had rained all the morning and the ground was not in the best possible condition, still it did not interfere with good ball playing. While the fielding on both sides was clean, there was only one play worthy of note, and that was a catch of a foul fly by Jennings after a great run. The champions played stupid ball toward the close, their sins of omission being more expensive than those of commission. The Spiders were lucky in that their errors counted for naught. After the game a cordon of police escorted the Spiders to the bus, though no attempt had been made to molest them. The score:

Cleveland 0 0 0 0 0 3 2 0 5

French Reach Madagascar's Capital.

Paris, Oct. 9.—A dispatch received here from Port Louis, island of Mauritius, announces the capture of Antananarivo, capital of the island of Madagascar, by the French troops and causes great relief to the government, as it has been recognized for some time past that the defeat of the French troops meant a change of ministry. The news quickly spread throughout the city, causing great excitement and much rejoicing.

PRIEST SENTENCED
FOR SEVEN YEARS

FATHER FLAHERTY TO DON A CONVICT'S STRIPES.

Edict of the Court was Announced at Geneseo This Afternoon—Buffalo City Employees Jailed For Pay Roll Padding and Getting a Large Sum of Money.

Geneseo, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Rev. Father Flaherty was this morning sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary for the betrayal of Marie Sweeney.

Buffalo, Oct. 9.—Three city employees were arrested this morning charged with padding the city pay rolls. It is said a large sum was stolen.

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 9.—Papers were served yesterday on Brady and Julian, the managers of the prize fighters, and W. K. Wheelock, the secretary of the Florida Athletic club, notifying them to appear before the Travis county grand jury at Austin. Brady is Corbett's manager, and Julian serves in the same capacity for Fitzsimmons. It was reported that papers were also out for Stuart, but this was incorrect. Papers were issued, however, for Joe Vendig, and will be served when he arrives. The charge against them is conspiracy to violate a law of the state.

Wagner Again Indicted.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 9.—A fourth indictment was returned against Father Dominick Wagner by the grand jury yesterday. The last indictment charges the priest with having embezzled $1,500 of the funds of St. Mary's church, of which he was pastor. It is alleged that Wagner began to misappropriate money entrusted to him during the first year of his pastorate and that the shortage may exceed the sum mentioned. Wagner will be prosecuted on this last indictment.

Durrant Gains Nothing.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 9.—Testimony for the defense in the Durrant case yesterday was disappointing. Charles T. Lenahan, who pawned a small diamond in Oppenheim's shop the same day the proprietor says Durrant was there, swore his visit was in the afternoon, whereas the pawnbroker said Durrant came in the morning. The defense endeavored to impeach his testimony without success.

Arrested for Train Robbery.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 9.—All the detectives in this vicinity are out hunting for the robbers who tried to hold up the Grand Rapids and Indiana passenger train two miles north of here Monday night. Two men have been arrested at Vicksburg, south of here, already, but there seems to be so much doubt that they are the men wanted it is said they will be released. One man carried a rifle. Marshal Pratt made the arrests.

Gibson Gives Bond.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 9.—Representative Milroy H. Gibson, of Chicago, indicted by the Sangamon County grand jury here Monday evening, yesterday appeared before Judge Shirley and gave bond in the penal sum of $2,500, with S. D. Scholes as surety. It is doubtful if the case will be reached at this term of court.

FOR MORE REVENUE.

Some Measure Needed to Replace the Income Tax.

New York, Oct. 9.—It is reported on excellent authority from Washington that one of the first things President Cleveland will call the attention of congress to is the necessity for providing a revenue to supply the place of that lost by the action of the supreme court in deciding the income tax unconstitutional. If the tax on beer is doubled, it is argued, so that the brewer could pay a tax of $2 instead of $1 a barrel, the government, without any additional expense of collecting, would secure something more than $30,000,000 additional annually, an amount that would more than compensate for the loss caused by the declaring of the income tax to be unconstitutional. This tax, it is also argued, would cause no increase in the price of beer to the consumer.

WILL WAIT FOR CONGRESS.

Cuban Insurgents in No Hurry for Recognition.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Gonzales de Quesada, secretary of the Cuban revolutionary party, with headquarters in New York, has been in Washington recently on private business. He did not see Secretary Olney nor were any steps taken toward securing the recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerents. No application will be made to the executive branch of the government until congress assembles. It is the feeling that even if the executive authorities were disposed to recognize the Cubans, the action would involve such grave responsibility that the executive branch would desire to have the co-operation and support of congress.

Indianapolis Goes Democratic.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—Indianapolis has gone democratic by the biggest figures in her history, the plurality of Thomas Taggart running between 3,800 and 4,000. This represents a change of over 6,500 votes from the result of a year ago. The present republican administration has rigidly enforced the Nicholson temperance law, and this is thought to have had much to do with the result.

RACINE PEOPLE LIKE DR. EATON

Were Glad To Have the Milwaukee Minister Assigned to Them.

"Dr. E. L. Eaton will not be in Milwaukee to renew his fight on the 'charity ball' this winter," says the Evening Wisconsin. "He is assigned to Racine. The rumors of his proposed removal brought influential members of Washington Avenue M. E. church to Racine to protest, but their wishes were not granted. The Racine church, by a unanimous call, asked for Dr. Eaton to succeed Rev. J. E. Farmer, whose pastorate here ended by limitation. Dr. Eaton, it is stated, was willing to accept the call, as he had tired of the constant criticism he had been subjected to at Milwaukee, though coming wholly from persons outside of the church. Racine people were delighted at securing him."

"Washington Avenue Methodist church will be in charge of Rev. George H. Trevor, D. D., of Fond du Lac. Dr. Trevor is a graduate of Lawrence university and his standing, according to President Plantz, was higher than that of any other graduate of Lawrence, not excepting Bishop Fallows."

MARK "GERMAN DAY" BY SPEECH AND SONG

CELEBRATION AT CONCORDIA HALL.

Congregational Y. P. C. E. Meet at a Banquet—Musical-Literary Society Were the Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Clark—George M. McKee Entertains Gentlemen Friends.

Janesville Germans marked the landing of their forefathers on American soil last night. They celebrated the anniversary at Concordia hall and a large crowd helped. The principal speech was made by Hon. Thomas Luchsinger of Monroe and his address was of exceptional interest. He spoke in both German and English and said that the present celebration had more aspects than one. It was a memorial celebration and commemorated German achievements and the good they had done as well as the good the country had done them. He spoke of the honesty and thrift of the race and gave their general history, paying a tribute to the ladies in the course of his address. A plea for unity and the carrying out of the victories with which they were endowed closed the address.

The singing of the Swiss Male Quartette of Monroe was also a pleasant feature, they receiving an ovation. The quartette consists of Messrs. Edward Ruegger, leader and second bass; Julius Bessive, first tenor; Henry Hefty, second tenor; Carl Ruch, first bass. Dancing followed the program, which was as follows:

OLD HOMESTEAD WAS GOOD

Denman Thompson's Noted Play Pleased Janesville Audience.

As long as Manager Stoddard will furnish his patrons with attractions like "the Old Homestead" there can be but little complaint. Every production has a weak point or two and "the Old Homestead" is not the exception to the rule. But it was good and all light places were counterbalanced by the excellence of some other portion. The double quartette is composed of eight voices in which but very little was lacking and their work was the feature of the evening. The company was a fairly good one and although some of the parts were somewhat overdone for this age the performance as a whole was entirely satisfactory.

SOME MINOR SOCIAL NOTES.

The members of the Royal Neighbors of America, auxiliary to the Modern Woodmen, planned and perpetrated a surprise on the members of the latter organization last evening. They met at the office of Dr. W. H. Judd and then they walked in on the Woodmen who were holding a "big chopping" at Liberty hall, unannounced. Dancing followed the serving of refreshments, Professor Huyke's orchestra furnishing the music.

St. Patrick's T. A. and B. Society will celebrate the twenty fifth anniversary of the organization of their society as well as the 105 anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew the noted apostle of temperance tomorrow evening with a lecture at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father Murphy of La Crosse who will tell of the life and work of Father Mathew. The lecture will begin at 7:30 and admission is free.

Miss Louise Carpenter entertained the University Association in a very pleasant manner at her home 204 Savine street last evening. Rev. V. E. Southworth, Misses Carrie Zeibinger, Cora Clemons and Janette Cody was assigned members on the program and the meeting was a profitable one socially and intellectually.

A VERY enjoyable "Horn of Plenty" social was given at the First M. E. church last evening, the Epworth League being the entertainers. Supper was served from 6 to 8 o'clock, and a program that all enjoyed followed.

MEMBERS of the Thoughtful Circle of the King's Daughters met for work and special business at the Congregational church parlors this afternoon.

FINE LEAF IN THIS YEAR'S CROP.

Wisconsin Did Better This Year Than She Has Done Since 1892.

Tobacco men declare that Wisconsin has raised the finest crop this year since 1892. The quality, soundness and texture of the leaf is pronounced admirable. A representative of Ucher, Manley & Co. of St. Paul, writes Dr. William Horne to this effect after investigating the condition of Wisconsin leaf carefully.

THE FROST SPOILS THE RIVER PEARLS

FEW GEMS CAN BE FOUND IN THE ROCK.

When the Shallow Water In Which the Bivalves are Generally Found Freezes Clear to the Bottom, Then the Clam and Pearl Will Both Meet Their End.

Rock River has gotten about all the glory it is going to get because of its pearls.

That is what William Loofbourov of Monroe says and he's an expert.

Mr. Loofbourov has been in the business six years. He came to Janesville a short time ago with the idea of exploring the river bottoms and finding a good place for next summer's work. He spent some time in the vicinity of the lower cotton mills in the course of investigation, but was not very successful.

"I found plenty of clams," remarked Mr. Loofbourov, "but that was the end of it. Of course I found pearls, yes nearly a bottle full but when this grade of pearl is at present selling at $3 a peck, I think there is little money in the business. You see," continued Mr. Loofbourov,

"the great trouble with the Rock river pearl is that in the fall when the water is low, the river freezes in most places clear to the bottom, enveloping the clam in an icy overcoat.

Cold Snap Comes Sometime.

The few clams that escape the freezing are sooner or later caught by a cold snap so the pearls do not develop."

Although Mr. Loofbourov has found a few good specimens they were secured in deep places in the river, which, did not freeze solid. Besides examining the river in a number of places, Mr. Loofbourov has worked some pearls but their actual value would amount to very little. On being asked the highest priced Rock river pearl that he had run across, Mr. Loofbourov said with a smile that $10 would be about as high as as he would care to venture on gems of the kind he had seen. Mr. Loofbourov was making his survey of Rock river and surrounding streams with an object in view. He is at present building a summer house boat at Monroe in which he intends to live and try his luck the coming summer floating down Rock River till he strikes a rich field.

MRS. BLOUNT SCORES A POINT

Social Success Does Not Make Her Less For Business Interests.

Miss Alice S. Blount, the talented and able editor of the Milton Telephone possesses that rare distinction of being a distinguished professional woman, while at the same time she maintains the highest social position. To her belongs that rare tact of mixing the two with brilliant success. At social functions she is a favorite with the young and a pet of the older women present. While sharing in the social delights she does not lose sight of what is going on in the world of business. Returning from a recent reception at Chicago, she found a rival newspaper had placed cards around the town, calling attention to its own merits. Mrs. Blount saw her opportunity. She ordered some cards printed bearing the following motto: "Ditto Telephone." The next day these cards were placed immediately under those of her rival, and her competitor's communication was used for firing her own guns and bringing down some good game.

A mirror could not lie if it wanted to. The glass has nothing to gain by flattery. If the roses of health and plumpness of beauty are leaving your face, your mirror will tell you so. Health is the greatest beautifier in the world. When a woman sees the indications of ill-health in the face, she may with almost absolute certainty look for the cause in constipation, and derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure permanently and positively any so-called "female complaint." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure constipation. There is no reason in the world why a woman should not be perfectly healthy. She will gain in health, strength and flesh. Hollows and angles will give place to fullness and grace. She will be that noblest and most beautiful of all creation—a perfect woman.

NAPOLEON, ONCE ASKED FOR AN OPINION,

Gives a Graphic Description of His Ideal Woman. Mothers Please Note.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

In response to a question asked by a lady, the great Napoleon replied, —

"My ideal woman is not the beautiful society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, nor the fragile butterfly of fashion, who glides the tortures of disease with a forced smile.

"No! my ideal is a woman who has accepted her being as a sacred trust, and who obeys the laws of nature for the preservation of her body and soul.

"Do you know, my knee involuntarily bends in homage when I meet the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation.

"That woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health, and the stalwart children by her side are her reward. That's my ideal woman."

To grow to ideal womanhood the girlhood should be carefully guarded.

Mothers owe a duty to their daughters that in too many cases is neglected.

Nature has provided a time for purification; and if the channels are obstructed the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.

At a mothers' meeting the wife of a noted New York divine said to her listeners: "Watch carefully your daughters' physical development.

"Mothers should see that Nature is assisted, if necessary, to perform its office, and keep their daughters well informed as to matters concerning themselves."

Irregularities, from whatever cause, are sure indications of organic trouble. With irregularities come disturbance of the stomach and kidneys.

Violent headaches often attack the victim; pains shoot everywhere. Extreme irritability follows quickly, and then utter despondency overwhelms the already over-burdened life.

Unless the obstruction is removed at once, your daughter's whole future will be darkened.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

WILL NOT PLAY THAT GAME.

According to the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, if the democratic administrationists are calculating upon the republicans in the coming congress meeting, the deficiency by any increase of internal taxes, they are doomed to the most abrupt disappointment. The democrats will propose among other things to double the tax on beer. This measure, says the correspondent, will be pigeonholed in the house committee on ways and means, and in its stead will be proposed by republicans a measure to raise revenue by impost duties, like a duty on wool. Republican leaders say that if the democrats prefer to issue bonds rather than raise revenue on imports, simply because the latter will assist rather than retard American industries, or to issue bonds simply because republicans will not vacate their fundamental principles against heavy internal taxes in order that free trade may be established well and good. The republicans will not adopt a democratic revenue policy even to prevent the issuing of bonds.

PADDED FIGURES.

The New York Tribune has accomplished a good work and one that so obviously needed doing that the only wonder is that it had not been done before. It has taken the lists of manufacturing establishments published everywhere by the free trade organs, as having advanced wages, and has subjected them to a careful scrutiny, the result of which proves that the list was "padded" to an extent conceivable only in the imagination of the typical free trade editor. The Tribune's investigations cuts these enormous gains down fully one half. Moreover, about half of the gains actually made have been in the iron industry alone, 27 per cent. in the cotton industry, only 14 per cent. in the woolen industry and 8 per cent. in all other manufacturing lines, while the advance averages only 10.2 per cent. or about half the decline in wages during 1893 and 1894.

NO STATE WANTS IT.

No state can afford to have the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight within its borders. What is too bad for Texas is too bad for anybody. There was a time when the laws were generally lenient and permissive in regard to prize fighting; but that was the formative period of civilization, so to speak, and before the interests of public decency and propriety were fully recognized. It is different now under the conditions which have been brought about by the gradual development and refinement of the race. The "ape and tiger" proclivities have not entirely died out of the average man, but they have ceased to be regarded with admiration. We are living in a time of prevailing respect for rules of conduct and standards of excellence that make the occupation of the pugilist detestable.

Some prominent republicans have suggested that the proper course for the house of the next congress to pursue will be to pass the appropriation bills and adjourn. This would not be wise, however, whether regarded from the standpoint of duty or from that of the welfare of the republican party. It is obviously the duty of the majority party in congress to propose measures for supplying the government with needed revenue, and it should do this in accord with its principles and entirely without reference to what the democrats in congress or the administration may do.

Had Parry only discovered the north pole, what money he could have made renting it as a location for prize fights!

A WONDERFUL CURE.

AN IOWA LADY PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

Suffered Twenty-Five Years From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble—Remarkable Manner in Which She Became Fully Cured.

(From Mich. Christian Advocate.)

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, an estimable lady residing at Lynnvile, Jasper Co., was for twenty-five years a sufferer from Dyspepsia, and her complete restoration to health is so remarkable that we present the facts in the case for the benefit of our readers, many of whom have doubtless suffered in the same manner and will, therefore, be interested in learning how all stomach troubles may be avoided and cured. Mrs. Skeels says: I used only one package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I received such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude. In fact it has been six months since I took the medicine and I have not had one particle of distress or difficulty since. And all this in the face of the fact that the best doctors I consulted told me my case was incurable as I had suffered for twenty-five years. I want half a dozen packages to distribute among my friends here who are very anxious to try this remedy. Truly yours,

Mrs. SARAH A. SKEELS.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy designed especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy, the successful physician of to-day is the specialist, the successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A whole package taken at once, it would not hurt you, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the State of Michigan alone have been cured of dyspepsia and of other ailments by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package, or by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

TWO SMOOTH CROOKS CLAIM TO LIVE HERE

"J. B. WILCOX AND BROTHER OF JANESVILLE" JAILED.

Chicago Police Gathered Them In For Many Forgeries—They are Natives of Sweden and Say This City Is Their Home—Men are Not Known Here.

Who knows "J. B. Wilcox and brother, Janesville, Wis." or "E. C. and Thom Eckstromer?"

Let anyone who does come forward. Two gentlemen who claim both of those names are now locked up in Chicago on scores of charges of receiving money under false pretenses and forgery.

For several months the men have been engaged in Chicago and elsewhere in representing themselves as being connected with the Illinois Humane society and forging the signature of President John G. Shortall to checks ranging from $20 to $50 each and inducing business men and bankers to cash them.

Hundreds of these worthless pieces of paper have been sent to President Shortall and by him pronounced forgeries. Several weeks ago the matter was reported to the Central police station but the detectives detailed on the case were unable to locate the clever swindlers.

Yesterday A. W. Landin, publisher of the Humane Journal, who had been one of the victims as he had seen one of the men so badly wanted. The officer and Mr. Landin saw E. C. Eckstromer entering the Lexington hotel.

He was placed under arrest and taken to the Cottage Grove avenue station. An hour later the brother of the prisoner called at the station and represented himself as a guest of the Lexington hotel and asked to see Eckstromer. Lieutenant Thomas recognized him and placed him under arrest.

Style At the Lexington.

The lieutenant then learned that the two men had for a week been stopping at the Lexington as "J. B. Wilcox and brother, Janesville, Wis."

While at the hotel they had occupied a fine suite of rooms on the fourth floor and had lived in great style. A visit to rooms 401 and 403 resulted in the finding of a bushel basketful of papers which will be used as evidence against the prisoners. The looked-for papers, however, were not found easily. It was discovered that they had been torn up and the pieces stuffed away in two sofas. Lieutenant Thomas finally succeeded in gathering together all the mutilated pieces, which were tied up in a bundle and carried to the police station.

In the collection were a number of checks on the Northern Trust Company and the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, to which the signature of John G. Shortall had been attached. A rubber stamp of the Illinois Humane society, which the swindlers had attempted to destroy, was also found. Among other things was an insurance policy for $1,000 on the life of E. C. Eckstromer, issued by Valencia lodge, Independent Order of Foresters, Clinton, Wis., and payable to Eckstromer's sister, Anna C. Oppermann. This was torn in three pieces.

Are Not Known Here

E. C. Eckstromer, who is regarded as the arch swindler, is about twenty-eight years old, while his brother is two years younger. Both are good looking and stylish dressers. They are good talkers and have evidently met with little difficulty in separating men from their money.

Little is known of their past life. They say they were born in Stockholm, Sweden, and came to this country several years ago. About a year ago B. O. Eckstromer obtained employment as solicitor for the Humane Journal and has swindled the publishers of that paper out of a considerable sum of money.

In the rooms were also photographs of beautiful young women, presumably society belles, whose acquaintance they had made during their stay in Illinois and Wisconsin towns.

Both prisoners refused to talk, and declared they had nothing to explain about the papers found hidden in the sofa or their room. The hotel officials were astonished at the arrests, as they thought the two young men from Wisconsin were just seeing the sights of Chicago.

Neither of the men are known here, and if they came from Janesville, they have assumed their names as they do not appear in the city directory, and the police do not know them.

WOLF AT MRS. GREELEY'S DOOR

Poormaster Kenyon Aids a Worthy Woman—Children Cared For.

Starvation was staring Mrs. John Greeley in the face when Poormaster Kenyon visited her yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Greeley resides on North Main street over Burger's meat market. Friends of Mrs. Greeley notified Superintendent Kenyon yesterday that she was suffering for food and the superintendent investigated. The case was found to be a worthy one and the big hearted superintendent soon furnished her with enough provisions there to last her for a time. Mrs. Greeley told a pitiful tale. Her husband was a plumber by trade having been employed by Geo. T. Prichard & Co., he drawing a salary of $3.75 a day. Last June, however, he lost his job, and there being no work here he left for the south.

"Three weeks ago he sent me $5 from Peoria, Ill., and that is the last I have heard from him" said Mrs. Greeley. "When that money was gone I was left without a cent and nothing to eat in the house, but the aid from the county will tide me over until I hear from him again."

Children Are Cared For

Three little children with tears in their eyes, bid farewell to Janesville this morning and left on the 10:55 o'clock train on the Northwestern road for Sparta, where they will be placed in the Home for Dependent Children. Poormaster Kenyon had the trio in charge, and they attracted a good deal of attention at the depot. They did not seem to be pleased with the change as they did not like to leave their relatives. The trio consisted of the two Burchmall boys who were here from Edgerton, and the little Ames girl who was brought here from Koshkonong. They will be well provided for at Sparta and doubtless comfortable homes with some private family will be found for them soon. Mr. Burchmall was unable to provide for his boys because of the death of his wife while the Ames girl was left helpless by the death of her parents, the mother having died some time ago.

George A. Clark and Miss Tillie Carlson Assume Marriage Vows—Williams-Geiss Nuptials—A Chicago Couple Come Here to Wed—Ceremony at Milton.

In the presence of about fifty relatives and invited friends the words were spoken at 4 o'clock this afternoon that made George A. Clark and Miss Tillie Carlson husband and wife. Davidson-Deveraux.

Two happy young people who came all the way from Chicago were united in marriage by Rev. W. H. Watton at the rectory of Trinity parish. They were Frank Eugene Davidson and Emilie Devereaux. The Local Dealers Were Notified of the Advance Yesterday Afternoon—Wholesale Price Is $6.45 a Ton And They Claim There Is No Money In the Business.

The inevitable has happened. Coal has "ris."

Seven dollars and fifty cents is what you will have to pay after this, and another rise is expected by the fifteenth of the month.

Local dealers received the glad tidings yesterday afternoon. The notice came from the wholesalers at Milwaukee and Sheboygan, who control the supply and the price thereof.

A short time ago you could buy hard coal for $6.50, and if you didn't get it then you made a mistake. Then the price was advanced to $7, where it remained until today.

"It costs us $6.45 a ton on the cars in Janesville," said a local dealer this morning, "so there is no money in it for us, even at $7.50 a ton. The advance in price does not put a cent in our pockets, even if the buyers do think we are responsible and 'cuss us black in the face' before they will pay their bill. We are as much at the mercy of the coal combine as the consumers are, but we can't do any more about it than they can."

GEORGE PLOWRIGHT RESIGNED

The Federated Trades Council's Treasurer Will Locate in Milwaukee.

George Plowright, who was until recently an employee of F. M. Marzuff & Co., expects to leave on Monday for Milwaukee, where he has accepted a position. In consequence of that intention, he last night resigned the office of treasurer of the Federated Trades Council, and M. H. Whittaker was chosen to act in that capacity until the next annual meeting.

BECKWITH HORSES WILL NOT STAY

String Will Be Sold in Chicago or Shipped Back West.

It is said that Senator Beckwith's string of trotters and pacers will not winter in this city, as was first intended. The horses are now quartered here, being in charge of Manager Hanson and Trainer Carnathan, and after being put in good shape, some of them will be taken to the Chicago sale while the rest will be shipped west.

Nothing is more divine or more sacred than for a man to live his life out in a really earnest spirit. We can make ourselves immortal only by making ourselves useful and true.

The excellent is the permanent. What is good and true and helpful will endure. The only antidote for death is a good life. Afraid to die? If you live as you ought to live death cannot harm you. It is not a question of whether you are "saved" or "lost," but whether you deserve to be saved or lost.

A Golden Harvest
is now insured to the farmers of the west and Northwest, and in order that the people of the more Eastern states may see and realize the magnificent crop conditions which prevail along its lines, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. has arranged a series of three (3) harvest excursions for August 29, September 10 and 24, for which round trip excursion tickets (good for return on any Friday from September 13 to October 11 inclusive) will be sold to various points in the West Northwest and Southwest at the low rate of about one fare.

For further particulars apply to the nearest coupon ticket agent or address GEO. H. BEAFFORD, Gen'l. Passenger Agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry., Chicago.

Weary and Worn.
When the tired factory operative, the weary on door laborer, the overtasked bookkeeper or clerk seeks a medical respite for expenditure of bodily forces, where shall he find it? Could the medical experience of thousands of workers be voiced, the verdict would be that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters renews falling strength, stimulates the faded mental powers to fresh activity, and relaxes undue nervous tension as nothing else does. Digestion, a regular habit of body, appetite and sleep are promoted by it, and it is an admirable auxiliary in the recovery of health by convalescents. A fastidious stomach is not offended by it, and to persons of both sexes in delicate health who occasionally feel the need of an efficient tonic, the whole range of the pharmacopoeia and the catalogue of proprietary medicines does not present a more useful, safer or more decisive one. It is also incompressible for fever and ague, rheumatism and kidney troubles.

Homesekers' Excursion for October.
On October 8 and 22, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell homesekers' round trip excursion tickets at half fare, with $2 added for return trip, to points on its own lines west, and to all points in Nebraska, Kansas, southwest Missouri, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, Arkansas, Wyoming, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Texas and Arizona. Tickets will be good for return on specified dates up to November 12.

The Bible and Bloomers.
Now that the bloomer opposition has seen fit to quote the Bible in support of its objection to bifurcation those who uphold the divided-we-stand-united-we-fall doctrine have succeeded in finding a "breeches Bible" and from it quote regarding the dress worn by Adam and Eve. "And they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves breeches." Certainly Mr. and Mrs. Adam must be considered as one of the world's very first families, so precedent gives the bloomerites the best of this Biblical argument.—Wheel.

A Bloomer Girl Slandered.
There is a standing joke among cyclists about the man who replaced the steel balls in the bearings of his bicycle with leaden pellets, which are about the same size and bear a resemblance to them. This is now cast in the shade by the story told by a local salesman, who found a quantity of beans in a pedal, where its owner, a bloomer maid, had put them to replace the steel balls, which had been lost.—San Francisco Examiner.

Cancer
and when told this, the most eminent specialists of New York, under whose treatment she was placed, declared her case was hopeless. All treatment having failed, she was given up to die. S. S. S. was recommended, and astonishingly, a few bottles cured her sound and well.

A MEMORY.

Bobbing and looking back she fled away
From where love lay.
Dead love, so tender one short hour ago,
Under the cold light of the northern star
Now lying low!
Moonshine and star dust scattered o'er his head,
And as she fled
A wailing echoed round her and her tears
Fell heavily, and in the distance far Adown the years
A voice cried, "Hope no more, for love is dead!"

Deep in the barren sands young Love was couched,
And near him crouched
A striped beast, gaunt, hungry, with red mouth
Wet with his blood.
This was the tigress Fate insatiate,
Who creeps and crouches ever on Love's path.
Nor mercy bath,
But watches, patient, tireless even as death.
For only this may quench Fate's burning drought—
Fair Love's last breath.
And his heart's blood alone can stay her wrath.

To left, to right, the barren desert spread,
And overhead
A vulture, wheeling, circled, black and grim.
She looked not on the desert nor above,
But back to him
And that lank beast, and, moaning, spake no word
Nor knew nor heard
Aught save the shivering echo of her moan,
Sighing, "Alone."
Then darkness fell upon the face of Love,
The barren desert, woman, beast and bird.

DOUBLE POVERTY.

I had gone down to my village to work, to get that local color which is supposed to be so necessary to sound fiction. At the end of a fortnight I had not written, at the most generous computation, more than a dozen pages, and I had grown very brown and a trifle melancholy. The cottage in which I lived lay broadside to the village street, and this, under the clear sunlight, had such a lazy and pleasant aspect that I was content to sit and watch it while the ink dried on my pen. When this simple occupation failed me, I sat on a fence overlooking a sloping meadow.
Beyond the meadow was a climbing, scattered wood, which ended in an open, sunbaked heath.

As I sat on this fence one day I saw,
far up on the edge of the heath, a hat and ribbons that I recognized. They belonged to a girl whom I had met at a dinner party a couple of months before.
Indeed I had taken her in to dinner,
and we rapidly hit upon so many points of divergence and agreement that we soon assumed the candor of old friends.
I had not discovered then that she knew my village. Indeed we were both undisguisedly surprised when we one day came face to face by the postoffice steps. I then learned that she had come down with her mother, a younger brother and a maiden aunt.

After that we were continually meeting, quite unexpectedly, and I began to feel reconciled to my meager production.

I watched the hat and ribbons for a time placidly, in profound enjoyment of my morning pipe. When it was finished, I knocked out the ashes, dropped on the meadow side of the fence and began leisurely to wade through the grass. It was evident, from the extraordinary stillness of the ribbons, that Miss Bursar was either reading or asleep.

I could not keep my point of destination in full sight the whole time, because the ground was perplexingly uneven, and the trees were sometimes as impervious as a wall, but I made as straight a line as I could and rather began to fancy myself in the character of a slow but inevitable fate. This idea had commenced to spin itself into a web of sentimental verse, when I became aware of Miss Bursar herself within six yards of me. She had an open book on her lap, but her eyes were turned on me.

"How very straight you came!" she said. My feigned surprise at seeing her collapsed instantly.

"How do you know," I said, sitting down beside her, "that I came straight?"
She pointed toward the village. My fence was in full view, and my track through the tall grass palpable, leading in a bee line toward where she sat.

"So you watched me?" I said.
"I saw you," she answered, "quite by chance and wondered what you were going to do."

She was very young, so young and so pretty, that snatches of verse began to weave themselves in my brain again. I sternly repressed this dangerous tendency and thereby abandoned my only hope of safety.

"How long are you staying here?" I asked.

"Oh, I don't know. Perhaps for three weeks. And you?"

I looked at her. "That depends on my work," I said. She laughed lightly and closed her book.

"It seems to me," she said, "that you don't do much work. You spend half the day on that fence."

"And you," I said, "pass me at least six times a day."

"How hot it is!" she said. "Do you mind opening my parasol?" I unfurled it for her with great tenderness. It was a tiny, dainty, silk affair, that matched her ribbons as eye matches eye. It had the delicious effect of isolating us still more completely. It threw a pretty golden shadow on her face that made me dream infinitely pleasant things and grow as bold and reckless as the sunshine that drew the scent from the heather round us.

"Miss Bursar"—I began.

"Yes?" she said, tapping her shoes together till they made a sound like a busy woodpecker.

"I was going to say"—I went on.

"What? I did not interrupt you. You stopped yourself."

"I know I did. I was going to say"—
I paused again.

"Do you think you will ever succeed in saying it?" she laughed, nodding at me.

"Certainly, if you will give me time.
I was going to say what an infernal nuisance it is to be poor!"

"I don't agree with you," she said decidedly. "I am poor, but I don't mind in the least." The admission was like wine to me. I took a deep breath and buried one hand in the hot grass.

"But you are a woman," I said.

"That makes it all the worse, doesn't it?" she asked.

"Not at all. You are a woman, you are young, you are beautiful."

"That's very pretty," she said, "but what then?"

"Now I," I hurried on, "am a man with nothing but my brain to earn money with, a brain that has the trick of getting addled with overwork." She looked at me again and laughed.

"You are giving it a rest down here anyway," she said.

"I'm not so sure about that. Now, if I were not poor, there are all kinds of things I should like to say today. I am going to say them as it is, but"—

"Shall we move a little farther down the hill?" she said. I helped her to her feet, quite satisfied with the progress I was making. My resolution had grown so rapidly that I forgot how perfectly innocent I had been of it an hour before.

My own youth, the girl's delightful grace and candor, and the intoxication of the sunlight had all combined to make me forswear prudence and take one of life's chances at its best.

As we went down the hill she started running, in sheer joyousness, and being suddenly confronted with a gorse bush, had no course but to jump over it. Her dress caught, and there was the sound of sudden rending.

"Oh, you have torn your frock!" I cried.

"It was your fault," she said, with sweet illogic.

"It was," I said penitently. "Let me pin it up for you." With the aid of three pins I succeeded in making her presentable, and then we sat down again to rest.

"I'm going to finish what I was saying now," I said. She looked at me and pouted a little, but was not displeased.
Her hand was resting on a bed of purple buckle near me, and I took it in one of mine.

"What a pretty, brown hand this is!"
I said. "How wise you are to let the sun play with it! When I met you first, two months ago, it was quite white."

"I hate gloves," she said.

"Of course you do. Have you ever noticed that the veins are like the shadow of a branch on short grass?" I lifted her own hand up to her for inspection, and so brought it to the level of my lips.

"Do you know," she said, "that you are being rather foolish?"

"If I am," I answered, "it is your fault. Forgive me." I would have kissed the hand if she had not suddenly withdrawn it.

"Oh, look," she cried, "there is mamma!" and indeed that discreet lady was following my track across the meadow with a truth of instinct that did her credit. But I was not discomposed. I took the hand again.

"She cannot be here for ten minutes," I said, "and I have not finished what I meant to say."

"Oh, be quick, then!" she cried.

"Be quick!"

"Let us unite our poverties," I said,
"and see whether we cannot evolve riches from the union. The experiment has, I believe, been tried before."

She turned to me, and her eyes told me that she understood.

"If you only knew how funny you look!" she said. "Do put your hat straight. No—let me do it for you."

She did it for me, and somehow our lips met.

"This has been a great day for me," I said. There was a rustling in the bracken a moment later, and Mrs. Bursar emerged upon us. I rose and bowed.

"Good morning, Mrs. Bursar!" I said.—New Budget.

IT HAS GROWN TO BE

A familiar word among buyers. That word "CORRECT" used to designate our line of

LADIES' AND GENTS' SHOES.

This is because every shoe we sell justifies the appreciation of the word: They are absolutely correct. The patronage so far accorded us by the trade warrants us in declaring that never was the correct line so complete so perfectly adapted to the wants of the trade. We continue our shoe sale for two days more and offer any shoe whether it is worth $2.50 or $3.50 at the low price of $1.98 per pair. We show full lines in Button and Lace for ladies and Lace and Congress for gents in the latest styles of toes.
